

The History of Education Centre – Website Privacy Notice

Who we are

The History of Education Centre provides an interactive and authentic Victorian classroom experience, primarily for school children but augmented with visits from community groups. Our classroom and museum host an array of intriguing historic objects, varying from books of the time to a tawse (used for demonstration purposes only of course).

Privacy

The History of Education Centre is committed to respecting the privacy rights of all visitors to our website. We comply with all relevant data protection laws.

Personal Information

We do not collect personal information from visitors to the website.

Cookies

We do not use cookies on the website.

Reviewing and Updating the Privacy Notice

We will review this privacy notice with any major updates to our website and / or data handling. We will also review it at least once every five years. The notice was last updated on 5th May 2021.

How to contact us

We've endeavoured to make this Privacy Notice clear, informative and understandable, but if it is not then please contact us and we shall provide further information as required. We will also look to improve the wording of this Privacy Notice, based on feedback.

To provide feedback, ask for more details or to make a complaint about our collection or use of your personal data then please contact us at histedadmin@gmail.com or write to us at:

The History of Education Centre,

Leith Walk Primary School,

9 Brunswick Road,

Edinburgh,

EH7 5NG.

You can also find out more information on data protection and your rights or raise any concerns directly with the Information Commissioner's Office in the UK (<https://ico.org.uk>).

The Information Commissioner's address is:

Information Commissioner's Office

Wycliffe House

Water Lane

Wilmslow

Cheshire

SK9 5AF

Helpline number: 0303 123 1113